Dower, to be issuing out of the said Premises, and to be paid in Manner in the said recited Indentures of Release mentioned, free from Taxes, with Powers of Distress and Entry, in Case of non-payment of any of the said Annuities; and as to the said Manors, Lands, Hereditaments, and Premises, and subject to, and charged and chargeable with, the said several Annuities, to the Use of the said Francis now Earl of Hertford, then Lord Conway, and Charles Lord Fane, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for a Term of One hundred Years, to be computed from the Day next before the Day of the Solemnization of the said intended Marriage, without Impeachment of Waste, upon Trust for the better securing the Payment of the said several Annuities, or yearly Sums; and after the End, Expiration, or sooner Determination of the said Term of One Hundred Years, and subject thereto in the mean Time, to the Use of the said William late Earl of Harrington for his Life, without Impeachment of Waste, with Remainder to Trustees and their Heirs during his Life, in trust to preserve contingent Remainders, with Remainder to the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Peterham, and his Assigns, during his Life, without Impeachment of Waste, with Remainder to Trustees and their Heirs, during the Life of the said William now Earl of Harrington, in Trust to preserve contingent Remainders; and from and after the Decease of the Survivor of them, the said William late Earl of Harrington, and William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Peterham, to the Use, Intent, and Purpose, that if the said Caroline now Countess of Harrington, then Lady Caroline Fitzroy, should happen to survive them, the said late and present Earls of Harrington, then she and her Assigns should, after the Decease of the Survivor of them during her Life, have and receive over and above the said Annuity of One thousand Pounds, limited to her for her Jointure as aforesaid, one other Annuity or yearly Sum of Five hundred Pounds of lawful Money, in augmentation of her said Jointure, to be issuing out of all the said Premises, and to be paid unto her, or her Assigns, in manner therein mentioned, free from all Taxes, with Powers of Distress and Entry in case of Nonpayment thereof, and subject to and charged with the said last-mentioned Annuity; and also the said several other Annuities herein before mentioned; and as the said several other precedent Uses and Estates should respectively end and determine to the Use of the said Sir Robert Rich and his said Co-Trustee, therein called by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for the Term of Six hundred Years, to be computed from the Death of the Survivor of them the said William late Earl of Harrington, and

William now Earl of Harrington (then Lord Petersham) without Impeachment of Waste upon the Trusts, and for the Intents and Purposes therein after declared concerning the same. And after the End, Expiration, or other sooner Determination of that Term, to the Use of the First and other Sons of the said William now Lord Harrington, then Lord Petersham, upon the Body of the said Caroline now Countess of Harrington (then Lady Caroline Fitzroy) his intended Wife, to be begotten in Tail-male, with divers other Remainders over. And it was thereby Declared, that the said Term of Six hundred Years thereby limited in Use to the said Sir Robert Rich and his said Co-Trustee, therein called by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, was so limited in Use to them in the First Place for better securing by the Ways and Means therein mentioned to the said Caroline now Countess of Harrington, then Lady Caroline Fitzroy, the due Payment of the said Annuity, or yearly Sum of Five hundred Pounds during her Life, in Augmentation of her Jointure as aforesaid, and subject to the said Trust, and without Prejudice thereto upon further Trust, that in case there should be one or more Child or Children of the Body of the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Petersham, on the Body of the said Caroline Countess of Harrington, then Lady Caroline Fitzroy, his intended Wife, to be begotten, besides an Eldest or only Son, was, or were the same, to be either a Son or Sons, a Daughter or Daughters; or was there to be both Sons and Daughters among them, or in Case there should be no Son or Sons, or Issue Male of the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Petersham, on the Body of the said now Countess of Harrington, then Lady Caroline Fitzroy, to be begotten, born in his Life-time, or after his Decease; and that there should be one or more Daughter or Daughters of the said now Earl, by the said now Countess, born in the Life-time of the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Petersham, or after his Decease; then, or in either of the said Cases upon Trust, that they the said Sir Robert Rich, and his said Co-Trustee therein called by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, should after the Decease of the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Petersham, or in his Life-time, if he should so direct, by any Deed or Writing under his Hand, attested by two or more credible Witnesses, by Mortgage or Sale, or other Disposition, of all or any Part of the said Manors, Lands, and Hereditaments, comprized in the said Term of Six hundred Years, or by and with the Rents and Profits thereof in the mean time; or in case the said William late Earl of Harrington should be living, by Mortgage, Sale, or other Disposition of the Reversionary Interest of the said Sir Robert Rich and his

said Co-Trustee therein, called by the Name of Christopher Galtthorpe therein, but without prejudice to the Estate for Life of the said William late Earl of Harrington and his Assigns, of and in the said Manors, Lands, Hereditaments and Premises, and without Prejudice to the raising and paying the said Annuity of Four hundred Pounds to the said Philip Earl of Chesterfield and Henry Pelham, for the separate Use of the said Caroline Countess of Harrington, then Lady Caroline Fitzroy, or the raising and paying to the said Caroline Countess of Harrington then Lady Caroline Fitzroy and her Assigns, during her Life, the said Annuities of One thousand Pounds and Five hundred Pounds levy and raise such Sum and Sums of Money for the Portion and Portions of all and every such Child or Children (other than except an Eldest or only Son) as therein after mentioned; that is to say, If there should be one such Child, Son or Daughter, then the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds for the Portion of such one Child to be paid at such Days and Times, as the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Peterham, at any time during his Life, by any Deed or Writing with or without Power of Revocation, to be sealed and delivered in the Presence of Two or more credible Witnesses, or by his last Will signed by him in the Presence of Three or more credible Witnesses should appoint, and in Default of such Appointment, to be paid to such Child, being a Son, at the Age of Twenty-one Years; and being a Daughter, at her Age of Twenty-one Years or Day of Marriage, which should first happen: and if there should be two such Children, Sons or Daughters, or a Son and a Daughter, then the Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds for the Portions of such two Children: And if there shall be Three or more such Children, Sons or Daughters, or Sons and Daughters, then the Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds for the Portions of such Three or more Children, the Portions of all such Children to go and be paid and allotted to any such one or more of them, or to be divided among them all, in such Parts, Shares, and Proportions, and in such Manner and Form, and to be paid at such Days and Times, and subject to and with, and under such Provisoos, Conditions, and Limitations over, (such Limitations over to be for the Benefit of some or One of them) as the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Peterham, at any time during his Life, by any Deed or Writing, with or without Power of Revocation, to be sealed and delivered by him in the Presence of two or more credible Witnesses, or by his last Will, signed by him in the Presence of Three or more credible Witnesses, should direct or appoint; and, for want of such Directions or Appointments, to go to, and be divided among, all such Children in equal Portions, Share and Share alike; and all

which Portions were thereby directed to be paid and made payable to the Sons, at their several Ages of Twenty-one Years, and to the Daughters, at their several Ages of Twenty-one Years, or on the Day of their Marriages, which should first happen : and if any such Son or Sons should attain his or their Age of Twenty-one Years, or any such Daughter or Daughters should attain her or their Age of Twenty-one Years, or be married in the Life-time of the said William now Lord Harrington, then Lord Peter sham ; then the Portion or Portions of him, her, or them so attaining the said Age, or marrying as aforesaid, shall be payable within Six Calendar Months after the Death of the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Peter sham, with Interest from the Time of his Decease, unless such Portion or Portions should be raised and paid in the Life-time of the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Peter sham, by his Direction as aforesaid ; in and by which said Indenture of Release, or Marriage Settlement of seven Parts, several Clauses, Provisoos, Declarations, and Agreements, were and are contained ; whereby it was provided, declared, and directed, That the said several Sums, which by and under the Trusts of the said Term of Six hundred Years, were directed to be raised for the Portions of the said younger Sons and Daughters of the said William now Earl of Harrington, by the said Caroline Countess of Harrington his Wife, should, in Default of any Appointment to be made by the said William now Earl of Harrington, be considered (in the Events therein mentioned) as vested Interest in such of the said younger Sons and Daughters as are therein mentioned ; but that in other Events therein specified, the same should go over, survive, accrue to such of the surviving and other younger Sons and Daughters of the said Earl and Countess, should in the mean Time, and until the same should respectively become payable, be severally attended with such Interest, by way of Maintenance, as therein is expressed, and several other Clauses, Provisoos, Declarations, and Directions, were and are therein contained, touching the Payment and Application of the said Sums so thereby directed to be raised for Portions, as aforesaid : And it was thereby farther provided and declared, That in case there should be no such Child or Children besides an eldest or only Son ; or being such, they should die before their Portions became payable ; or in case all the Trusts thereby declared concerning the said Six hundred Years Term, should be fully performed, and the said Trustees reimbursed their Charges and Expences occasioned by the said Trusts ; or if the Person or Persons to whom the next Estate of Inheritance in the said Premises, comprized in the said Term of Six hundred Years on the

Deter-

Determination thereof should belong, should pay to the said Sir Robert Rich and his said Co-Trustee, therein called by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, or to their good liking secure the Portion or Portions for such Child or Children, or so much thereof as should be remaining unpaid, all Interest, Charges, and Expences being first satisfied; then, and in any of the said Cases, the said Term of Six hundred Years of and in the said Premises, or so much thereof as should remain unfold for the Purposes aforesaid, should, after the Decease of the said Caroline Countess of Harrington, Lady Caroline Fitzroy, and full Satisfaction of the said Annuity of Five hundred Pounds, limited to her in Augmentation of her Jointure, and all Arrears thereof, and all Costs, Charges, and Expences occasioned by the Non-payment thereof, cease and be utterly void. And it is in and by the said Indenture of Release further provided and declared, That it should and might be lawful to and for the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Petersham, at any Time during his Life, by any Deed or Writing to be sealed and delivered in the Presence of two or more credible Witnesses, or by his last Will signed by him in the Presence of three or more credible Witnesses; but nevertheless without Prejudice to the said Estate for Life of the said late William Earl of Harrington, and his Assigns, of and in the said Manors, Lands, Hereditaments, and Premises; and also without Prejudice to the raising and paying the said Annuity or yearly Sum of Four hundred Pounds, therein before appointed to be paid for the separate Use of the said Caroline Countess of Harrington, then Lady Caroline Fitzroy as aforesaid, or the Arrears thereof; or to the raising and paying to the said Caroline Countess of Harrington, then Lady Caroline Fitzroy, and her Assigns, during her Life, the said several Annuities or yearly Sums of One thousand Pounds and Five hundred Pounds, thereby made payable to her and them as aforesaid; to direct, limit, or appoint, any further or other Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, to be levied and raised out of the said Manors, Lands, Hereditaments, and Premises, in Augmentation of, and as an Addition to, the Portions therein before provided for the Daughters and younger Sons of the said William now Earl of Harrington, then William Lord Petersham, on the Body of the said Countess of Harrington, then Lady Caroline Fitzroy, to be begotten, to be paid to such Daughters and younger Sons, at such Days and Times, and to be divided among them, if more than one, in such Parts, Shares, and Proportions, and in such Manner and Form, and subject to, and with, and under such Provisoos, Conditions, and Limitations over, such Limitations over to be for the Benefit of some or one of them, as the said William now Earl of Harrington, then Lord Petersham, at any Time during his Life, by any Deed or Writing, with or without Power of Revocation, to be sealed and delivered by him, in the Presence of two or more credible Witnesses, or by his last Will signed by him, in the Presence of three or more credible Witnesses, should direct or appoint; and that the said Sir Robert Rich, and his said Co-Trustee, therein called by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, should, from and after such Direction, Limitation, or Appointment, stand and be possessed of, and interested in the Premises to them limited, for the Term of Six hundred Years as aforesaid. In Trust that they the said Sir Robert Rich and his said Co-Trustee, therein called by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, and the Survivor of them, and the Executors, Administrators, and Assigns of such Survivor, should and did, by all or any the Ways or Means aforesaid, or any other Ways or Means as they, in their Discretion, should think fit, but without Prejudice to the said Estate for Life of the said William late Earl of Harrington, and his Assigns, of and in the said Manors, Lands, Hereditaments, and Premises; and also without Prejudice to the raising and paying the said Annuity of Four hundred Pounds therein before appointed to be paid for the separate Use of the said Countess of Harrington, then Lady Caroline Fitzroy, and the Arrear thereof, and to the raising and paying to the said Countess of Harrington, then Lady Caroline Fitzroy, and her Assigns, during her Life, the said several Annuities or yearly Rent Charges of One thousand Pounds and Five hundred Pounds, thereby made payable to her and them as aforesaid, levy and raise such further and other Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, as the said William now Earl of Harrington, then William Lord Petersham, should so direct, limit, or appoint to be levied and raised, out of the said Manors, Lands, Hereditaments, and Premises, in Augmentation of the Portions for the Daughters and younger Sons of the said William now Earl of Harrington, then William Lord Petersham, on the Body of the said Caroline Countess of Harrington, the Lady Caroline Fitzroy, to be begotten as aforesaid.

And whereas by a certain Deed-poll or Instrument, dated the Fourth Day of March, in the Thirty-third Year of King George the Second, being an Appointment of the Earl of Harrington of Five thousand Pounds, in Addition to his younger Childrens Portions, in Writing, under the Hand and Seal of the said William now Earl of Harrington, and sealed and delivered by him in the Presence of the two credible Witnesses, whose Names do appear to be thereon indorsed; dorsed; which Deed-poll, or Instrument in Writing, bears Date the Fourth Day of March, in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, reciting the said Indentures of Lease and Release, or Marriage Settlement last mentioned, to the effect herein before recited, and that there was then issue of the said Marriage an eldest Son, and five younger Children, (that is to say) one younger Son and four Daughters, and that there was likely to be other Issue of the said Marriage; so that the said William Earl of Harrington apprehended it to be prudent and expedient for him to execute the Power to him given, in and by the said Power to him, in and by the said therein and herein before mentioned Proviso, contained in the said therein and herein before recited Indenture of Release, whereby he was empowered or enabled to appoint a further Sum, not exceeding Five thousand Pounds, to be raised out of the Premises comprized in the said Term of 600 Years, in Augmentation of, and as an Addition to the Portions therein before provided for the Daughters and younger Sons of the said Marriage, he the said William now Earl of Harrington, for making a further Provision for the Daughters and younger Sons of the said Marriage, did, by virtue of the Power and Authority to him in that Behalf given, by the said recited Indenture of Release, and of all other Powers and Authorities, enabling him thereto, by the said Deed-poll, or Instrument in Writing, so bearing Date the said Fourth Day of March, in the Thirty-third Year of his late Majesty; but nevertheless without Prejudice to the raising and paying the said Annuity, or yearly Sum of Four hundred Pounds, in and by the said recited Indenture of Release, appointed to be paid for the separate Use of the said Caroline now Countess of Harrington, and the Arrears thereof; and to the raising and paying unto the said Caroline, now Countess of Harrington, and her Assigns, during her Life, the said Annuities, or yearly Rent Charges of One thousand Pounds and Five hundred Pounds, by the same Indentures of Release, made payable to her and them, as aforesaid, direct, limit, and appoint, that the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, of lawful Money of Great Britain, should, by the said Sir Robert Rich, and his said Co-Trustee, therein called by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, and the Survivor of them, and the Executors and Administrators of such Survivors, by and out of the said Manors, Lands, Hereditaments, and Premises to them limited, for the said Term of Six hundred Years, in and by the said recited Indenture of Release, be levied and raised in Augmentation of, and should go and be applied, in the Manner and Proportions therein and herein after mentioned, as and for an Addition to the original Portion and Portions provided for all and every the the Child and Children of the Body of the said William now Earl of Harrington,

Harrington, on the Body of the said Caroline now Countess of Harrington, his Wife, begotten or to be begotten, born in his Life-time, or after his Decease, (other than an eldest or only Son); and the said additional principal Sum of Five thousand Pounds so to be raised, should be so levied and raised over and above, and besides the several and respective Sums of Money in and by the said recited Indenture of Release, provided and made payable to him, her, or them, for his, her, and their original Portion and Portions, which said additional Sum of Five thousand Pounds should go and be allotted, paid, and divided, unto and for the Benefit of and among such Child, or Children, other than an eldest or only Son, in such Parts, Shares, and Proportions; and should become vested, and should be paid and payable at such Ages, Days, and Times; and should be subject to such Powers of Appointment, Distribution, Apportionment, and Revocation, and should be liable to such Contingencies, Chances, and Benefits of Accruer and Survivorship, and should be attended with such Interest, by way of Maintenance; and the same should cease, determine, and be no longer payable upon such Events and Contingencies, as in and by the said recited Indenture of Release or Marriage Settlement was mentioned, declared, and provided, touching the original Sum thereby directed to be raised for the Portions of such Child and Children, being Sons or Daughters, as therein is expressed; in and by which Deed-poll it was provided, and it was thereby declared, That for and notwithstanding any thing in the said Deed-poll, Writing, or Instrument before contained, there should not, by Virtue of the said Appointment, or Direction, be raised for any one such Daughter or younger Son, more than the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds in the whole for his and her original and additional Portion; nor for any two such Children, being Daughters or younger Sons, more than the Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds between them, for their original and additional Portions: And in the same Deed-poll it was also provided, and it was thereby declared, directed, and appointed, That they, the said Sir Robert Rich, and his said Co-Trustee, therein called by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, and the Survivor of them, and the Executors, Administrators, and Assigns of such Survivor, should levy and raise the said additional Sum of Five thousand Pounds, and the Interest, by way of Maintenance attending the same, in Augmentation of the said Portions, so and in such Manner as that the same might be without Prejudice to the raising and paying the said Annuity, or yearly Sum, of Four hundred Pounds, in and by the said recited Indenture of Release appointed to be paid for the separate Use of the said Caroline now Countess of Harrington, and the Arrears thereof, and without Prejudice dice to the raising and paying unto the said Caroline now Countess of Harrington, and her Assigns, during her Life, the said several Annuities, or yearly Rent Charge, of One thousand Pounds, and Five hundred Pounds, by the said Indenture of Release made payable to her and them as aforesaid : And in and by the said Deed-poll it was farther provided, That it should and might be lawful to and for the said William Earl of Harrington, at any Time or Times hereafter, during his Life, by any Deed or Deeds to be by him sealed and delivered in the Presence of Two or more credible Witnesses, or by his last Will in Writing, to be by him signed and published, in the Presence of Three or more credible Witnesses, to revoke or alter all or any of the Directions or Appointments therein before by him made or given, of or concerning the said additional Sum of Five thousand Pounds, so intended to go in Augmentation of the said Portions, or any Part thereof, and to make or give any new or other Direction, Appointment, or Disposition, of or touching the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof.

And whereas the Children who are now living of him the said William now Earl of Harrington, by the said Countess of Harrington his Wife, (besides their eldest son and Heir apparent) are Five, (that is to say) Lady Isabella Stanhope, the Right Honourable Amelia, now Countess of Barrymore in the Kingdom of Ireland, Lady Harriot Stanhope, the Honourable Henry Fitzroy Stanhope, and Lady Anna Maria Stanhope ; and he the said William Earl of Harrington, had by the said Caroline Countess of Harrington his Wife, another Daughter, the Right Honourable Caroline late Viscountess Fortrose, in the Kingdom of Ireland, deceased. And whereas the said several Sums of Money, which the said Sir Robert Rich and the said Co-Trustee in the said recited Indenture and Deed-Poll, called by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, are authorised and enabled by Virtue of the said Term of Six hundred Years by the said Indenture of Release, limited in Use to them, and by virtue of the said Deed-Poll according to the Direction of the said William now Earl of Harrington, as therein respectively mentioned, to levy and raise for the Portion and Portions of all and every the younger Child or Children of the said William now Earl of Harrington, and the said Countess of Harrington, still remain to be raised ; and the said William Earl of Harrington being minded and desirous to raise the same, did give Directions that proper steps should be taken towards raising the same ; and thereupon it was discovered, that there was at the several times of the Date of the said Indenture of

Release

Release of Seven Parts and Deed-Poll respectively, no such Person as Christopher Calthorpe of Ampton, in the County of Suffolk Esquire, as therein is mentioned; but that James Calthorpe Esquire then had, and now has, a place of Residence at Ampton, in the said County of Suffolk; and that he the said James Calthorpe was well acquainted with the said Charles late Duke of Grafton, and was the Person meant and intended to be named in the said Indentures as a Co-Trustee with the said Sir Robert Rich; and that the Name of the said James Calthorpe was inserted in the said recited Indenture and Deed-Poll, by the Christian Name of Christopher, through Error and Mistake, his real Name which he has always gone by, being James and not Christopher.

And whereas the said Sir Robert Rich, lately departed this Life, and the said James Calthorpe who was so called Christopher Calthorpe through mistake, and who was so meant to be his Co-Trustee, hath survived him.

And whereas the rectifying the said Mistake, and vesting in the said James Calthorpe as surviving his said Co-Trustee the said Sir Robert Rich, the said Term of Six hundred Years, and enabling the said James Calthorpe to assign the same for the Purposes herein beforementioned, and to perform the several Trusts directed to be performed by the said recited Indenture of Release or Marriage Settlement of Seven Parts; and by the said Deed-Poll cannot be effectuated without the Aid and Authority of Parliament:

Wherefore Your MAJESTY's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the said William now Earl of Harrington and Caroline Countess of Harrington his Wife, on Behalf of themselves, and the said Lady Isabella Stanhope, Amelia Countess of Barrymore in the Kingdom of Ireland, Lady Harriot Stanhope, the Honourable Henry Fitzroy Stanhope, and Lady Anne Maria Stanhope, their younger Children,

Do most humbly Beseech Your MAJESTY,

That it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted, by the KING's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Manors, Messuages, Advowson, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premises, which in and by the said Indenture of Release of Seven Parts were limited or mentioned or intended to be limited, in Use to them the said Sir Robert Rich and his Co-Trustee, by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for the said Term of Six hundred Years, as aforesaid, for the Purposes aforesaid, shall be immediately from and after after the Date of the said recited Indenture of Release and Deed-Poll respectively; and the same are hereby Enacted and Declared to have been, and to be from that time, vested in the said Sir Robert Rich and James Calthorpe, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, in the same Manner, and for the same Estate and Interest, and upon the same Trusts, and subject to the same Provisoos, Powers, Declarations and Agreements, as in and by the said Indenture of Release of Seven Parts, and in and by the said Deed-Poll are expressed and declared, touching or concerning the said Manors, Lands, Hereditaments, and Premises, in and by the said Indenture of Release of Seven Parts, mentioned to be limited in Use to the said Sir Robert Rich and such Co-Trustee as aforesaid, by the Name of Christopher Calthorpe, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, for and during the said Term and Estate of Six hundred Years therein mentioned.

And be it further Enacted and Declared, That the said James Calthorpe, who has so as aforesaid, survived the said Sir Robert Rich and his Executors, Administrators and Assigns, shall stand possessed of and interested in the said several Hereditaments and Premises, for and during the Residue of the said Term of Six hundred Years, upon the same Trusts, or such of them as can take Effect; and for the same Intents and Purposes, and subject to the same Provisoos, Powers, Declarations, and Agreements, as by the said recited Indenture of Release of Seven Parts and Deed-Poll, are mentioned, expressed, and declared, of and concerning the said several Hereditaments and Premises by the said Indenture of Release of Seven Parts, mentioned to be limited in Use to the said Sir Robert Rich and Christopher Calthorpe, for the said Term of Six hundred Years as aforesaid.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That the said Indenture of Release, and Deed-poll, and all and every other Indenture or Indentures, Deed or Deeds, Writing or Writings, of or concerning the said several Premises, comprized in the said last-mentioned Term of Six hundred Years, which shall be executed by the said James Calthorpe, or by his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, and the Assignments, Conveyances, and Assurances, thereby made and to be made, shall be as good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said James Calthorpe had been made Party to the said Indenture of Release of Seven Parts, and had been named therein in the said Deed-poll, as a Co-Trustee with him the said Sir Robert Rich, by the Name of James Calthorpe, instead of Christopher Calthorpe, and as if he had in the said Indenture

Indenture of Release, and Deed-poll, been expressly named by the Name of the said James Calthorpe.

Saving always to the KING's Most Excellent MAJESTY, his Heirs and Successors, and to all and every Person and Persons, Bodies politic and corporate, his, her, and their Heirs, Successors, Executors, and Administrators, (other than and except Christopher Calthorpe, if any such Person there be, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns), all such Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand, as they, every or any of them had before the passing this Act, or could or might have had and enjoyed, in case this Act had not been made.

An ACT for Rectifying a Mistake in the Name of one of the Trustees in the Settlement made of the Estates of the Right Honourable William Earl of Harrington, previous to his Marriage with the Right Honourable Caroline Countess of Harrington, his Wife.
